

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY

camp and Mr. Nick Schmidt, a prominent man in local railroad circles, laid upon the result of the contest, Mr.

A supper was to be provided by the brother and an elegant ring by the loser. Van Camp, true to her promise, gave dinner Tuesday evening to her gentle friends, and it was all that could have desired, being wisely planned, daintily and heartily enjoyed. The whole af-

Royal League. The regular meeting of the Omaha Council No. 65, Royal League, held its regular session on Monday, November 17, at the lodge rooms. A social game of bridge followed.

was engaged in by the members among invited guests, after which refreshments were served. When this interesting programme was concluded another address had been lighted, Brother William McCall claimed the attention of the gathering and in behalf of the council, extended his greeting to the visitors, closing him with words of reading in a masterly manner. Then Twain's account of "The Frog and the Prince," and the story of the life of John A. S. Knox, past grand regent of the Order, responded on behalf of the members and spoke some encouraging words to the members of the lodge. Short speeches were made by Brothers Alfred Thomas and J. W. Ker on the fraternal features of the Social Movements.—The Socialists, Mrs. Hartsuff gave a pleasant card party at her home, 1001 Madison street, last evening.

The Kaiser's Christianity.
LIN. Nov. 24.—[Special Cablegram to the BEE.]—The Kreuz-Zeitung says that Emperor William, in an address to a number of priests who had been just sworn in as members of the guards stationed in Berlin, said that the Kaiser's Christianity was not a mere theory, but a reality which could only be overcome by the power of Christianity. No one could be a soldier who was not a Christian, and he who took the oath of allegiance to him who was the earthly master ought, before accepting the oath, to be faithful to their heavenly Father and Savior.

The Fire Record.
MAG. Nov. 23.—A Daily News Alton, cardinal says. Three flint glass factories, members of the Illinois glass works, were destroyed by fire this morning. Loss, $10,000. A hundred hands are thrown out of employment.

RENO, N. N., Nov. 22.—This morning extensive silk mills of Banford Brothers, 1000 Broadway, residence of Joseph and John Banford which attained the mill, totally burned. The loss is placed at $200,000. Insurance $300,000. Many of the employees had narrow escapes.

Manning on Labor and Wages.

SEATTLE, Nov. 22.—[Special Cablegram from Seattle.]—The Courier de Bruxelles prints an article from Cardinal Manning on the labor question. The cardinal thinks that the question of wages ought to be solved by means of a contract between masters and men.

should be revised periodically. He had recourse to legislation for the settlement of labor disputes should, as far as possible, be avoided. This, he adds, is the rule of Catholic teaching.

Sully is Drunk Again.

Rox., Mass., Nov. 22.—John L. Sullivan, treasurer of the Boston Police Association, and a member of the Sullivan family, struck the city yesterday. He celebrated in his usual manner and broke his neck by falling through a

At the city hotel. During the afternoon he varied the monotony by kicking Harden back. Harrison went to Boston and it is feared that his spine is invaded by the same ailment.

♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦

Votes of Confidence in Parnell.
 (Box, Nov. 22.)—[Special Cablegram to Bee.]—The boards of guardians in Ireland continue to adopt votes of confidence in Parnell. At Newross, however, a very scene occurred on the introduction of a motion in support of Parnell. Several members of the board commented in strong

South American Steamers.
GALVESTON, Tex., Nov. 22.—Representatives of a Chicago syndicate have closed an agreement with capitalists, which, it is said, is for the establishment of a new line of steamers between Galveston and South American ports. The company has a capital of $1,000,000 and will be known as the Pan-American transportation company.

Montana Miners' Demands.
NEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 22.—A Butte special to the Tribune says the Miners' has demanded a reduction in work to 10 hours a day, with no reduction in wages. This is one of the strongest in the country with a membership of 5,000 and a work force of over three thousand. The union will reply Monday.

The Meeting Suppressed.
 PAST, NOV. 22.—TOMORROW will be the twenty-second anniversary of the execution of John D. Gould and Larkin, the "Manchester boys." Notwithstanding the fact that the government has prohibited demonstration, an attempt was made here today, but police promptly suppressed the demonstration.

Money Hard to Obtain.
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 22.—A Tribune editorial says, President Egan of the Chicago, Paul & Kansas City road has telegraphed to St. Louis people that the plan of ex-

What General Stanley Says.
SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 23.—General Stanley, commanding the Department of A Circular to Indian Agents.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Acting Indian Commissioner Belt has sent a circular to all Indian agents except those of the tribes of the Dakotas requesting that he be kept posted by spread of excitement among the Indians and to report whether any outbreak is threatened.

Business Failure.—Spartan, Neb., Nov. 22.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The drug stores of W. H. at this place and Hemingford were today by chattel mortgage held by the of Hay Springs. Liabilities, $6,000; $4,000.
